

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

May 7, 2002

H.R. 3892 Judicial Improvements Act of 2002

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on April 24, 2002

H.R. 3892 would establish a new chapter in the federal judicial code regarding complaints against judges and disciplinary procedures. Based on information from the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, CBO estimates that enacting the bill would have no impact on the budget of the courts because similar procedures are followed under current law. Because enacting H.R. 3892 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply to the bill.

H.R. 3892 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lanette J. Walker. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
